Attention: Claude LeFrancois

Dear Mr. LeFrancois:

RE: Renee Boje - Extradition Act
Submissions to the Minister Under s. 43, 44 and 46 of the Extradition Act, 1999

On reviewing matters, we note that we neglected to send to you the following:

- 1) Supporting Documents of the Refugee Submissions;
- 2) Supporting Case Law of the Refugee Submissions;
- 3) Event Program from Hempfest 2000. I refer you in particular to page 3, pertaining to Amy Pofahl being freed, the article by Mike Gray at page 5, the article pertaining to Ms. Boje at page 13 and, in particular, the Drug War facts commencing at page 21;
- 4) "Compare Legal Drugs with Illegal Drugs: Drug War Outspends Space Program", Robert G. Owen – a critique of American drug policy.

Consequently, we are now enclosing those documents for your reference.

While I appreciate that the deadline for submissions is past, I continue to come across newspaper articles and continue to be sent e-mail, letters, petitions and other material in support. While the Act provides that the Minister has a discretion to consider this material, I am therefore sending it on to you for the Minister's consideration in her discretion. Consequently, I enclose in addition the following:

- 1) Petitions and Letters in Support – Volume III;
- 2) "Prohibition creates the link between drugs and crime", by Peter Preston, the Guardian Weekly.

Yours very truly,

CONROY & COMPANY
